ISSUE TRAVEL REGULATIONS

BLUE-, WHITE-COLLAR WORKERS GET DISCOUNT -- Zagreb, Vjesnik, 11 Feb 52

On 11 February, the Directorate of Railroads in Zagreb began to issue travel permits to all blue- and white-collar workers and members of their families, entitling them to discounts on trips in Yugoslavia.

To date, 33,000 P-30 travel permits have been issued to blue- and white-collar workers, and 25,000 P-31 travel permits have been issued to members of their families. The directorate is issuing about 5,000 permits a day, which entitle the holder a 50-percent reduction of the regular fare on railroads and on river and ocean liners. About 2 to 2½ million such permits are to be issued to blue- and white-collar workers in Croatia.

All blue- and white-collar workers of state enterprises, establishments, and offices, who have been employed more than 11 months, receive a P-30 travel permit, which entitles them to make three round trips yearly. The holder may use one round trip for his yearly vacation, with a 75-percent reduction of the regular fare.

Honorary officials who are employed, trainees in the economy, and pensioners are also entitled to such travel permits. Members of blue- and white-collar workers' families are entitled to a 50-percent reduction on one round trip a year. Officials in social, political, sports, and cultural organizations, members of farm work and agricultural cooperatives, and blue- and white-collar workers in processing or production cooperatives are to receive K-15 permits entitling them to one yearly trip at a 50-percent discount.

For the issuance of these permits, the Directorate of Railroads in Zagreb has established two new offices, one for Zagreb and the other for establishments and enterprises in the rest of Croatia.
